Dear Ron,

Thanks for your letter of 15th June

It would be great to see the photograph of the Amazing Doctor Blittelhause in the Old Boys section - I know of no copyright problems. I have a large black and white photograph somewhere, should you need it and the cast have signed the book "Dr. Blittelhause" was P. Wilney (head boy, I think who later became an HM) somewhere.

The photo was shown on TV when I was the recipient of the big red book from Michael Aspel (This is your life) and I have shown a slide of it at lectures, so I am sure there are no problems.

I remember those doodle bugs and SAM:- what a character. Was old M. Bond still there through your time? Short trousers - oh dear - grazed knees and cold limbs in 1939/40
Nice to hear from you.

Yours sincerely

Henry Sandon
